

Twin Cities Chapter of ISCEBS February 2019 Educational Luncheon

"The Rise of Digital Health and its Impacts on Benefits"

Speakers:

*Matt Dunn - Regional Sales Director, Omada Health
Konstantin Mehl - Founder/CEO, Kaia Health
Dale Cook - Co-Founder/CEO, Learn to Live*

Digital delivery of care is expanding and you need to understand its effects on your plans or your client's plans. Our panel of speakers will give us a thorough look at what their companies are providing and the impact on both plan costs and participant access and outcomes.

Our topics and takeaways will include:

- Illustrating how digital health is taking the foundations of evidence-based medicine into a scalable solution that anyone can use
 - Learning how CBT, IBC and Multimodal Therapies are validated through their outcomes
- Understanding how digital health is impacting obesity-related chronic diseases, mental health, and chronic back pain
- Providing a better understanding of how benefit leaders can leverage these programs to support members, reduce costs, and improve health

Insurance Continuing Education Credit has been applied for in the state of Minnesota. IF APPROVED, 1 credit hour will be available.
